

LISBURN CENTRAL PRIMARY SCHOOL AND NURSERY UNIT

26th April 2024

We are pleased that children have settled well into the summer term. Hopefully the weather will improve and we will be able to get outside more and enjoy outdoor learning activities this term.

I would like to remind you that your child should have a water bottle with them everyday - no juice please!

BOOK FAIR

The Book Fair will remain in school next week.

You can view the books available in the book fair on the link below:

<https://bookfairs.scholastic.co.uk/travelling-books/the-books>

You will be very welcome to come into school and purchase books for your children at the following times:

8:30am - 9:00am

2:00pm - 3:30pm

Annie

We are very excited about the production of Annie taking place next week. The pupils and teachers have worked very hard and we are looking forward to the performances.

The show times are:

30th April at 7:00pm

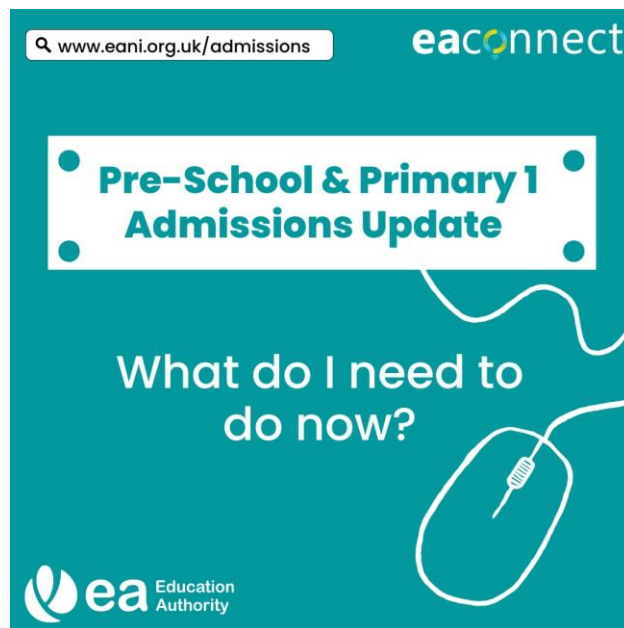

1st May at 1:30pm

The doors will open at 6:30pm. Entrance will be through the main school doors.

There are still some tickets available to purchase. Cost - £2.50 for all tickets. School children are free.

On Wednesday 1st May all children will finish school at 1:00pm apart from the members of the cast and the choir.

Nursery and Year 1 School Placement Letters for Sept 2024...

If you received the outcome of your child's Pre-School or Primary 1 application yesterday, there is guidance on the next steps within the email or the letter you received and on the EA's website: www.eani.org.uk/parents/admissions/placement-notification

Assessments

Online standardised assessments will continue with Years 3 to 7 over the next few weeks. Tests in Maths and English will be completed online during May. These are based on work appropriate to the pupils' age and standardised to Northern Ireland scores

Bank holiday - 6th May. School closed

90th Anniversary service

Thank you to everyone who joined us for the anniversary service on Wednesday in Christ church. It was a lovely service and enjoyed by all. The choir took part with the choir of Old Warren primary school and the children were treated to a very entertaining show by the drama group 'Play it by Ear'.

The Mayor of Lisburn and Castlereagh council, Councillor Andrew Gowan also joined us.

We would like to thank Christ church for organising the service for our school.

1 - The Mayor of Lisburn and Castlereagh council with the principals, members of the board of governors and some previous staff of Lisburn Central Primary School and Old Warren Primary school.

2 - Some of the pupils of Lisburn Central and Old Warren Primary schools.

3 - The choir from Central and Old Warren.

P.7 Residential - Delamont

The P.7 residential trip to Delamont is fast approaching. Please remember there is meeting for parents of those attending in school on Thursday 2nd May at 6:00pm. This will provide you with information on the activities and things to pack.

After School Clubs

Monday - Multisports (Activity NI)

Tuesday - SEAG Club - P.6 pupils only

Thursday - Science (Activity NI)

Friday - Dance (Burns Skills School)

There is no football on Wednesday due to school production of Annie.

There is no after 2-3 club on Wednesday.

Mayors Parade

The Mayors Parade will take place in Lisburn on Saturday 11th May. Please return the reply slip if you would like your child (P.5 - P.7) to participate in the parade. Members of staff will accompany the children throughout the parade.

This week in Central

Our pupils enjoyed an excellent performance of 'The Secret Garden' on Tuesday in school, by M and M productions.

P.6 were using their MicroBits for programming activities both outdoors and in the classroom.

P.7 Young Enterprise Business teams working on their projects
